

'Commercial & Residential Investment'

Swansea Area Ref MS 346

Price
Freehold Property: £165,000

A business opportunity to acquire this substantial investment property with existing tenants on short term leases giving the alternative of using the property for other uses on the lease expiries.

Property:

The property is of traditional brick build and has a ground floor area of approx. 75 sq metres with a loft conversion to the first floor of a further 75 sq metres

The ground floor commercial area presently leased out on two short term leases, the first floor accommodation is also leased out on a short term basis.

The ground floor consists of a common entrance leading to the office area split into two suites. There is a storeroom, shared staff kitchen and staff toilet.

A separate front door leads up to the accommodation to the first floor consisting of a spacious two bedroom flat with a large living room with open plan kitchen, shower room and toilet. A feature of the flat is the exposed wood beams ceiling. The flat has the benefit of gas central heating via a combi boiler and roof windows.

Although the ground floor is presently let out as office space, the property would also suit retail use.

The property yields an income of £1025 per month.
