South Wales –Relocateable Ref MS 402

Price
Business: £65,000 plus sav

Business: A very well established 'Cottage Industry' business producing homemade preserves including jams, chutney, curds marmalades, and pickles

The business has been established for almost twenty years and is well known in the food industry supplying The National Trust for their outlets, hotels, restaurants, convenience stores, holiday home businesses for their welcome packs and the general public.

The business has built up the client base via the website, food fairs, county shows, farmers markets, magazine articles and even television appearances.

The business has 80 regular clients on monthly account and many more on an 'Ad Hoc' basis including sales at the various food fairs and shows.

Orders are either delivered (if in the area) or sent my courier.

Operated by the vendor and one part time staff (as required) the business is easily managed.

The business has great potential to expand using larger commercial facilities and increased marketing.

There may be grants available to enable the business to expand

Location: The business is based in South West Wales at the vendor's home using the domestic kitchen. It is possible to relocate the business almost anywhere in the UK.

Training will be provided by the vendor. Note that the business is vat registered but there is no vat payable on sales
